IN THE TABERNACLE.

The Sunday School Children Have a Christmas Celebration.

The Tabernacle Sunday school had a very delightful Christmas entertainment in the church on Tuesday evening last. The exercises began with a cantata appropriate to Christmas, consisting of responsive readings and music. The whole was given under the direction of Miss Rachel A. Garrett. The cantata was followed by recitations from "Tillie D. Wright, Gentle Hall," and "Eddie Hall," and solos by Rachel Motherhead and Miss Giddings. The recitations were given by the scholars to the accompaniment of "Tillie D. Wright" and "Vil-lie Mag," were worthy of special notice.

Fifteen gold medals and a large number of books were then presented to the children for attendance, diligence in collecting money, recitation of scripture verses, and helping in new scholars. The presentations were made by the pastor, Rev. W. C.

Scotfield. Mr. H. L. Rose, the retiring superintendent, received three handsome presentations, a set of china, silver and sugar spoon. These were accompanied with resolutions complimentary of his service to the school. Special presents were given by the scholars to their teachers.

Among the rest one to Mr. Chas. R. Smith by his class.

At the conclusion of the presentations

Kris Kringle made his appearance and distributed a box of candy to the excited and delighted children, with special presents for some. The school, under the direction of the superintendent, Col. Weston Flint, were invited into the lecture room, and all partook of ice cream and cake. The all was a great success and reflects credit upon the committee, Mr. C. R. Smith, Mrs. H. W.

Smith, Mrs. J. H. Brough, and Miss

White. The school during the year has received more than $500, the Miss Society's collection being $200. On Saturday evening last the members of the church and congregation presented the pastor, Rev.

W. C. Scotfield, with a handsome suit of clothes and overcoat to match. His chair of the church, Miss Virginia Moody, Miss Bailey, Mr. Riley, and Mr. Brown, rendered some excellent Christmas music on Saturday last. The solos of Miss Moody were especially well rendered and acceptable.

THE CEMETERY TROUBLE.

Transcript from the Records of the District Surveyor.

By the records of the office of the District

Surveyor it is shown that on the 17th of March last, a subdivision of the Prospect Hill Cemetery property was filed for record.

The plat as recorded sets aside the portion of the ground west of the line of North Capitol street for "building lots," and the
